COMPLAINT

WILLIAM SOLOMON LEWIS, Plaintiff, prose, whose post office address is 701 N. San Jacinto Street, Houston, Texas 77002, being duly sworn on his oath deposes and says that the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Defendant, is justly indebted to him in the sum of two thousand two hundred fifty dollars and zero cents ($2,250.00) for medical bills in connection to an assault that resulted in substantial injury to Plaintiff's face that was cut open by a razorblade causing significant scarring directly attributed to prison officials' negligence at U.S.P. Allenwood on or about August 28, 2018, under the Federal Tort Claims Act pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1346 where there existed a foreseeable risk of the likelihood of a dangerous situation that would lead to injuries. Damages include costs associated with surgery and other procedures to repair injuries related to scarring and there is no counter claims in favor of the Defendant against the Plaintiff and all administrative remedies have been submitted to the Defendant prior to the filing of this lawsuit.
